

WALL LIGHTING

Collection

An aerial photograph of a city, likely New York City, with various architectural overlays. The overlays include rectangular outlines of buildings, circular shapes, and lines representing streets and structures. The text "NEW ARRIVAL" is prominently displayed in the center of the image in a bold, white, sans-serif font with a thin black outline.

The background of the image is a complex, light-colored architectural drawing. It features various floor plans, technical drawings, and geometric shapes such as circles, rectangles, and lines, all rendered in a faded, greyish tone. The drawings appear to be technical or engineering plans, possibly related to lighting or interior design, given the context of the text.

An aerial photograph of a city with a grid overlay. The grid consists of thin white lines forming squares and rectangles. Various geometric shapes, including circles, squares, and rectangles, are scattered across the grid, some overlapping the city's features. The overall color palette is muted, with shades of brown, tan, and grey.
